

It always saddens me when in this day and age not all programs on TV are captioned for the hearing-impaired. I can hear but my mother is deaf - - she has been visiting me for the last month - - and I have come to realize how many cable channels alienate the hearing-impaired by not captioning their programs. In 2004!! Please do something to remedy this situation. Thank you.